GIRL FAILS TO FREE 'CHUTE'

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 24.—(UP)—Lita Belle Whitely, 22-year-old parachute jumper, was killed instantly today after dropping 2000 feet from a plane during the filming of a Haas Gibson movie thriller near Nevada.

The girl plunged the full distance to the ground, apparently having lost her nerve and failed to pull the release ring. The parachute never opened.

Elder Double Denied.

Ruth Elder, transatlantic aviatrix, is Gibson's leading lady in the picture. It was at first reported that Miss Whitely was doubling for Miss Elder, but this was denied by Gibson. He said the jumper had a small part in the production.

Miss Whitely's fall was watched by Elton DeWitt, her husband and fellow "chute" jumper. Gibson, star of the picture, Arthur Rosson, director and others of the cast. They stood helplessly as her body spun and twisted toward them.

Release Not Pulled.

Jim Grainger pilot of the plane from which Miss Whitely made her stunt jump, reported that he had cleared the craft easily, but made no visible effort to pull the release on her parachute.

"I don't know how it could have happened," Gibson said. "When I reached her side the parachute was intact and the ring had not been pulled."

Tommy McLaughlin had made a parachute leap a few minutes before and suffered a sprained ankle when he landed in a tree top.

Famous Jumper.

Miss Whitely had made 110 jumps before the one today without serious injury and with her husband composed one of the best stunt teams in the country, officials of Universal Pictures said.

Stunt scenes for the picture titled "The Wizard of Horses" were being filmed over Hollywood in the foothills. Gibson is starred in the cost-air thriller.

Eddie Rickenbacker, American war ace, told the Michigan Automotive Trade Association today.

The trip, Rickenbacker estimated, would be sponsored by the government as a reward to President-elect Herbert Hoover's Good Will tour.

Shortly after Lindbergh's flight is completed, Rickenbacker said, a new passenger and transport air line will be started in South America, connecting that continent with North America through cooperation with Pan American Airways, which recently inaugurated service between Miami, Fla., and Central America.

Heavy Airmail Tonnage In U. S.

Total air mail tonnage for the United States during 1927 was 1,449,364, while for 1928 the total was 2,519,418. Approximately 67 percent of the 1928 total was moved during the last five months of the year, after the new five-cent rate went into effect on August first. In 1928 mail planes carried in excess of 1,000 tons more letters than in 1927.

The greatest volume of mail handled in any month in the ten-year history of the service was moved in December last—268 tons delivered at 108 cities now served daily by the system.

These figures were quoted by W. G. Hebron vice president in charge of traffic for Boeing Air Transport, which includes Pacific Air Transport, carried 1,412,275 pounds of mail during 1928—39 percent of all United States airmail.

The matter hinges on a proposed reduction in freight rates to be made available to San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, which are used as ports of call. The rate is being asked to permit the rail carriers to compete with the water lines.

32 WITHOUT FOOD FOR 3 DAYS

Editors Note: The following story was received from Samuel J. Downing, a passenger aboard the S. S. America, who witnessed the rescue of 32 men from the Italian freighter Florida, sinking some 700 miles off the Virginia capes. Downing's story brings out for the first time the plight of the radio operator on the Florida and the desperate circumstances of the crew, which had been without water or food for three days.

By SAMUEL J. DOWNING. Copyright, 1929, by the U. P. ASSOCIATED PRESS. Jan. 24.—(UP) Radio to the United States from the crew of the 32 men was made from the Italian freighter Florida, which was carried out under the most dramatic and thrilling circumstances.

Chief Officer Harry Manning, and eight men left the American at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday, when weather conditions were poor, but immediately after their departure a heavy squall blew up and developed into the worst gale of the season, threatening a hurricane to reach the Florida.

Heavy List.

The Florida was listing 35 degrees to starboard.

The American had been trying to locate the wrecked ship, but that SOS call was sent on Thursday.

The Florida's wireless operator, according to the story told by survivors on board the American, was threatened by the crew the two days because he did not inform them that the ship was under way.

Barred by Bins.

The radio operator barricaded himself in his bin.

BRAIN TO GROW DECLARES SHIPLEY

By CARLE H. BENNETT
SAUSALITO, Jan. 24.—(UP)—Enlargement of the brain and natural alterations in its structure for improvement of mental ability will be the major change in the physical form of human beings for many years to come, Maynard Shipley, prominent advocate of evolution, economics and astronomy, predicted here today.

The scientist reviewed the past, starting with the presumption that life had its inception "one thousand million" years ago, then discussed beliefs of man's origin and finally commented on what he anticipates of the future, in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

Brain to Grow
"Man has attained an equilibrium," the scientist, who has spent from 10 to 16 hours a day during 40 of his 56 years in research work, said.

"Our brain will most likely increase in size and its structure will possibly change to better its functions but otherwise we will probably remain about the same size and the members of our bodies will retain about the same proportions."

"I am optimistic about the future of humanity. Unless we have another great war in the next ten years I believe people will soon be in an era of exceptional happiness. If there is a war within the decade it will set us back a great deal but those of us who remain will start over again and eventually reach that era."

Freedom Asked
Shipley has devoted most of his time in recent years to the Science League of America, Inc., which upholds Darwin's theory of evolution and asks "freedom of teaching and learning in our tax-supported schools, colleges and state universities, and the basic American principle of complete separation of church and state."

He is president of the league, a member of the American Association for Advancement of Science and the Astronomical Society of the Pacific.

Before mentioning the future he laid a basis on the past. He spoke of the most primitive shark, a creature low on the evolutionary scale. He commented on higher fishes that might have led eventually to amphibians, then reptiles and mammal-like reptiles, onward to the Monothemata (egg-laying mammals, such as now survive in Australia), the Marsupials, Kangaroos for example, and so on to the true placental mammals, shrews, moles, lemurs, monkeys, apes and man.

"There are nearly 400 structures in the bodies of men identical with those of the greater apes," Shipley declared. "Even Darwin was astonished at the proof we have collected since he expounded his theory."

The evolutionist explained that one of the most noticeable changes in man had been the lengthening of his thumbs. "The human hand and the front paws of apes are almost exactly the same except the thumb of man is longer," he said. "Apes had no use for a long thumb when they swung from tree to tree, and clasped the limb with what we call a thumb pressed close against the index finger."

Grew By Use
"Man had to handle tools and in order to grasp them firmly he began to use the thumb for leverage, consequently by constant use it grew to the desired length. "Our bodies now seem to be advantageously formed for all needs and medical science has advanced to the place where this standard may be maintained, so I can see no change, except of the brain."

Shipley smiled when he remarked that some psychologists have said we only use five or ten percent of our brains.

"But I think the day will soon be here when the entire human race will increase its intelligence," he said.

C. OF C. PLANS RAIL RATE FIGHT

The rate under the present plan, to be denied to Richmond on the ground that Richmond is not a port of call and does not now carry an established shipping rate. The difference amounts to about three and a half cents a hundred in favor of the other cities and against Richmond. It was said by Sanford.

Sanford said the local chamber will in the next few weeks carry out a complete traffic survey to show how much tonnage goes north by rail with the object of showing that Richmond is entitled to a comparable rate and that the will immediately appoint a traffic committee to be made up of traffic managers from local plants to study the problem and report. The Richmond Chamber will be represented at the Portland hearing.

"The proposed change in rates has no effect on our shipping to any points except the ones in the northwest," said Sanford. "It amounts to a differential of three and a half cents a hundred pounds and many of our industries consider it decidedly unfair. In shipping to all other points both domestic and foreign Richmond can boast of a rate entirely comparable with the other bay cities, and we believe this same condition should exist in shipping to the northwest. We will be represented at Portland and will make a strong showing to have Richmond included in the rate that has been suggested for the other bay cities."

4 New Arrivals Greeted Here

wealth and in search for 'jazz.' However the time will come when machines will earn our livelihood and then we will turn to the vast amount of literature and information on sciences that has been accumulated but scarcely noticed and spend most of our time reading it."

By this theory Shipley undoubtedly gains consolation for the long and difficult work of his life, obtaining theories and beliefs which many persons cannot understand. His office is in a modest but comfortable home here hidden by trees and overlooking all the major cities in the San Francisco bay region.

Support Difficult
"We have had difficulty gaining support for our league," he admitted as he considered the four years since its foundation. "But the time will come, when the problem will be so great there will be a demand for adequate machinery with which to aid its solution. We are making that machinery."

"During 1927 and 1928 there were 14 anti-evolution bills before state legislatures but all of them were defeated, though the margins in some cases were small. It is safe to say that the teaching of evolution is forbidden in approximately two-thirds of the rural districts of the Union. The fight will be a hard one but we believe we have established our foundation on the true principles of America."

Shipley smiled when he remarked that some psychologists have said we only use five or ten percent of our brains.

Air Disaster Fatal To Eight

U.P.—Underwood.

WRECKAGE of the Army transport plane C-2, sister-ship of the record breaking "Question Mark," which crashed at Royalton, Pa., killing eight members of the Army air force. The accident, one of the worst in the history of American aviation, occurred a few minutes after the take-off for the return flight to Washington.

RESCUE AT SEA TOLD HERE BY SAILORS

A thrilling tale of an attempt to refloat the Siamer Michigan when that ship struck a coral reef in the southern seas last November was told by a junior officer on the freighter Golden Peak docked at the Pier terminal wharves here.

For five and a half days the crews of the two ships fought to refloat the vessel. Finally the attempt was given up and the Michigan was abandoned. Eight members of the crew were brought to San Francisco by the Golden Peak while the remainder of the seamen were left in Manila.

The Michigan struck the reef off the coast of the Isle of Palms. The Golden Peak heard the SOS call while 200 miles away from the Michigan's position. It pushed to the stranded vessel. Although the cargo could not be taken aboard, small valuable articles were transferred. Heavy seas and its position made it impossible to float the vessel.

The United States destroyer Ford steamed to the aid of the stricken vessel, arriving two days after the Golden Peak. The crew of the Golden Peak snapped a number of photographs of the rescue work.

Minor Building Permits Issued

W. Hockings was granted permission to construct a one car garage on Rheem avenue between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets at a cost of $115.

A brick fireplace will be constructed at the home of Mrs. M. Downing at Golden Gate avenue at a cost of $80.

Maliks Win City Cage Title

The Ben Malik basketball team last night won the city basketball championship by defeating the Farrer cagers 43 to 25 in the second game of a championship series.

As a result of their win, the Ben Malik team was presented with a silver loving cup by W. L. "Doc" Sawright, on behalf of O. A. Ponsen, local jeweler, who donated the cup. The cup was received by Clarence Johnson, manager of the team.

The game started slowly, with both teams keyed to the highest pitch. At the end of the half the score stood 13 to 11 in favor of the Ben Malik squad.

Dyer, Muth, Star

The defeat of the Farrers can be laid to one thing; too much Dyer and Muth. These two boys have been working together in the basketball seasons and piling up point after point. Last night Dyer came around with 19 points, while Muth added 11 points.

Superior to the Ben Malik outfit also helped to annex the championship.

Although the game was decided by the margin of 18 points, the Ben Malik team played a very stiff defense and played a very good game but the Farrer was made better.

Pinto was high man for the losers with six points and Spies, Kenny, Melin and Craig each made four points.

McKracken's Loss

In a preliminary game the McKracken cagers lost to the Olean quintet by a score of 15 to 13 in a fast and furious game. Glenn scored for the losers with 14 points and Beck was high man for the winners with nine points.

FRENCH PLACE U. S. FIRST IN SPORTS

PARIS, Jan. 24. (UP)—French sporting editors propose an annual alignment of athletic records a better method than Olympic competition of judging the finest among the athletic nations of the world.

An appraisal for the first ten months of 1928 by the method suggested does not affect the United States, which retains first place, despite the fact that it does not take 100 performances into account.

Germany, which took fifth place in the Olympic games, takes second place and France which ran seventh at Amsterdam shares third place with Finland.

Before the proposal can be taken seriously, the difference in European and American methods of timing events must be taken into consideration, the former being rather backward in this respect.

Conditions on European tracks and European methods of conducting athletic events also differs considerably. All the performances for which times are taken are in meters, whereas practically all American runs are in yards and in consequence receive no consideration.

For the 100-meter dash shares first place with Corts of Germany, with a time of 16.25 seconds; Second: Hoeben and Lammert, both Germans, 16.5-16.8; Third, Williams, Canada, 16.8; Allister, American, with 19.35 this.

Two hundred meters—First: Koenig, Germany, 20.9-10th; Second: Houben, Germany 21.1-10th; Third: Schuller, Germany 21.1-10th.

Four hundred meters—First: Rinkelhardt, Germany, 47.2-10th; Second: Paul Martin, Swiss, 47.2-10th; Spence, Germany, 47.4-10th; Third: Ball, 48.

Eight hundred meters—First: Seraphin, Martin, France 1 min. 50.3-5 seconds; Second, Lowe, England 1 min. 51.1-5 sec; Third: Hahn, U. S., 1 min. 51.2-5 sec.

Fifteen hundred meters—First: Jules Ladoamier, 3 min. 42.15 sec; Second: Larva, Finland, 3 min. 53.1-5 sec; Third: Cosser, 3 min. 55 sec.

Five hundred meters—First: Riota, Finland, 14 min. 35.1-5 sec; Second: Borg 14 min. 39.3-10 sec; Third, Nurmi 14 min. 40 sec.

Ten thousand meters—First: Nurmi, 30 min. 18.4-5 sec; Second: Joy Ray, 31 min. 28.2-5 sec; Third, Selin, 32 min. 3 sec.

100 meters hurdles—First: Weighton, Smith, South Africa and Dye, U. S., 14.2-5 sec; Second: Sempe, France, Anderson, Leister, U. S., Peterson, Sweden, Atkinson, South Africa 14.4-5 sec; Third: Baskin, King, Collier, all U. S., Steinhardt, Germany, Szott, Finland, 15 sec.

Two Crockett Runners Enter Newspaper Run

Two Crockett Community Center runners, A. Robinson and S. Crockett, will enter the annual newspaper run on Sunday morning.

This run is started by the Crockett community center, which is held between the Crockett building and the beach, a distance of 7.12 miles.

Early Robinson and Crockett have been practicing diligently for this in order to put the clubs name on the list of winners.

Robinson placed fifth in the last Tribune race around Lake Merritt, but since that time has had considerable experience under his belt.

Crockett, accompanied by Robinson, quite recently established a new marathon record for the run between the Community Center and the Crockett building, which covers a distance of 26 miles.

Three Richmond men will enter the San Jose city bowling handicap tournament starting Monday.

The tournament will last for a week and is being rolled at the Dream alleys. A diamond medal has been offered for first prize.

Bowlers entering the tourney from Richmond are J. DeBaere, D. Frayer and R. Rogers. Frayer and DeBaere rolled with the Pacific Bars during the last season in the Oakland city league.

CROCKETT CLUB WILL PLAY 2 CONTESTS

Two fast games are promised Crockett basketball fans tomorrow night when the San Francisco Girls club play the Community Center club, and the Native Sons team of Oakland meet the club unlimited five.

A dance will be held in the club gymnasium immediately following the games.

The lineup for the San Francisco Girls team includes: Mona Kelly (capt.) Verma Ramey and Babe Eby, forwards; Alice Williams and Laurene Lipscomb, tap centers; Lucile Savage and Margaret Gallagher, side centers; Marian Millett, Josephine Maney and Mildred Peterson, guards.

A fast, hard fought game is expected between the girls teams because both teams have been going through the season with very few losses. In fact, up to the present time the local sextet has won all of the four games played.

The second game between the boys unlimited team and the Oakland Native Sons is expected to be a tight one as the outside team has been making a strong bid for honors in the Native Sons league, whereas the local team already has five wins to its credit.

CALIFORNIA TO MEET OREGON GOLFERS

DEL MONTE, Jan. 24. (UP)—Golf stars from the state of Oregon remained favorites over the experts of California tonight although it was announced that Charles Seaver, considered one of the best players on the Pacific coast, may be able to play for California in the team matches between the two states here Saturday and Sunday.

The Oregon team, consisting of Dr. C. F. Willing, Don Moe, Frank Delfs, H. Chandler Egan, Captain Rudie Wilhelm and Russell Smith was busy during the day digging divots during practice for the important event.

Only one member of the home team, Jack Neville, had arrived by two others, Johnny McHugh, Fay Coleman, George Ritchie, Dr. Paul Hunter, captain, and W. W. Campbell will reach here Friday.

Provided Seaver can reach here in time he will take the place of Campbell in the tournament. Many critics have selected Seaver as a most likely candidate for championship of California in the future.

Arrangements for matching the players, procedure and scoring rules will be determined Friday when Dr. Hunter meets Wilhelm. Belief was expressed that the competition will follow the same general lines as last year when four-ball matches were played on Saturday and singles Sunday. Each match would count one point.

No one would venture to pick the probable lineups for the four-

Hockey is a major sport in many eastern universities and with the facilities now being made available on the coast, is almost a certainty to take its place on the schedule of winter sports activities in California and the northwest.

THREE KILLED IN AIRPLANE ACCIDENT

an airplane accident at San Angelo, Texas, today, became one of the most noted pilots of the nation when he came here in 1927 for the Dole flight to Honolulu and displayed excellent skill during preparatory flights.

Henly, with Bennett Griffin, were in the monoplane "Oklahoma" when it led six other planes at the start of that epochal flight and would have been an outstanding favorite to win the race if a melted cylinder block had not forced him to return here more than an hour later.

The pilot claimed the motor failure had cost him exactly $100,000, the $25,000 prize for first to finish the 2400 mile trans-oceanic flight and the remainder from the ventures he could have entered with the prestige of a victory.

Griffin and Henly were first to qualify for the race and consequently drew the pole position at the start. They were followed by the "El Encanto" of Kenneth Hawkins and Norman Goddard, which cracked up on the runway, thus giving the Oklahoma at least a 15 minute advantage over the nearest competitor, Art Goebel, in a plane exactly like Henly's won the event.

Walker Awarded San Rafael Work

James Walker, Richmond brick contractor, has been awarded contracts for brick work on the Montgomery Ward building in San Rafael. The structure will be similar to that to be erected by the Ward company here.

The San Rafael building will be owned by Jacob Albert, head of the Albert's department stores of Richmond, Napa and San Rafael.

Martinez Will Be Benefited By Strait Span

will be done from the Benicia shore, while all the steel and superstructure work will be done from the Martinez side.

While the piers are being laid the Southern Pacific crews will start the construction of the Martinez yard and the double track line between Martinez and Port Costa. Work on the incline will also be started. Present plans call for the completion of the incline about the same time that the pier foundation has been finished.

The last obstacle in the path of the bridge will be cleared, if President Coolidge signs the bill granting the right of way. Benjamin declared that he is sure that the president will sign the bill.

Patrol Name Selected By Girl Scouts

"Lover Patrol" was the name selected by the Citizens' Girl Scout troop last night as the name for its new patrol at a session in the Longfellow junior high school.

Signaling was practiced by the group. Plans were arranged for first aid tests to be held during the Scout Leaders' class.

The new uniform of the group was worn by several of the girls. The dress is of forest green and the regulation Girl Scout hat is used.

Mrs. L. W. Wanehoff presided at last night's meeting.

HOOVER STARTS ON FISHING TOUR

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Jan. 24—(UP)—President-elect and Mrs. Hoover rested aboard the palatial yacht, Amitee, anchored off one of the upper Florida keys tonight ready for the conquest of his favorite fish which Hoover and a party of friends will begin tomorrow.

The President-elect and his party left the ferry estate on Belle Isle in automobiles this morning for Key West. They traveled 175 miles down the coast where they embarked in the Amitee, which belongs to Joseph H. Adams and the Saunterer, which is owned by Jeremiah Milbank who took along Mrs. Milbank and a party of friends.

The two vessels steamed out towards the fishing grounds, conveyed by a small coast guard boat which carried four secret service men, whose duty it will be to keep the curious and prying away from the president-elect's fishing territory.

Hoover intends to cast political cares from his mind for the next three days, while he enjoys a tussle with the big game fish, but before he left he had a protracted conference with Deputy W. Morrow, ambassador to Mexico, who stopped here enroute to New York.

Morrow declined to discuss his conference with Hoover and there was no official statement about his visit, but it was indicated rather clearly that the ambassador will not be appointed secretary of state but will remain in his present post.

Morrow expects to sail early next week for Mexico City and to be there after March 1. He will stop in Washington enroute to New York. He and Hoover conferred this morning for nearly three hours. Morrow left this afternoon for New York.

BIRTHS RECORDED

Two girls were recorded yesterday at the Richmond City Health department. They are Jesus Antonio Malanca, born on Jan. 20 to Mr. and Mrs. Loring Malanca and Anastasio Azvezo, born Jan. 22 to Mr. and Mrs. A. Azvezo.

Admits Gifts.

For several hours state's attorneys brought all their legal cunning to bear in an effort to shake Keyes' statement that he believed gifts made to him by Getzoff were "friendly gestures" and not intended to influence his prosecution of the Julian cases.

State's attorneys sarcastically asked Keyes how, after 25 years of public service, he could think that the proprietor of a small tailor shop was a millionaire as he declared he did.

Calmly Keyes returned that he had no reason to know that Ben Getzoff was not a millionaire. He reiterated his statement that he had accepted some of the presents with the understanding that he was to repay the "loans" when he took up private practice.

Auto Returned.

The state brought out in the

'ONLY GIFTS' PROSECUTOR ASSERTS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 24—(UP)—United States District Attorney Samuel W. McComb testified for the defense in the Keyes' bribery trial today that Keyes had never attempted to stop federal prosecution of Jacob Berman and S. C. Lewis.

Keyes is accused of submitting to bribery to permit acquittal of Berman and others in Julian petroleum corporation cases, conducted by him as district attorney of Los Angeles county.

His defense sought to show that Keyes was so little interested in Berman's welfare that when along Mrs. Milbank and a party of friends.

WITNESS TELLS RESCUE

himself in the wireless room to escape.

The compass and navigating instruments were out of order and hence it was impossible to broadcast the position of the ship.

Shortly after last prayers had been said by the crew at 5:55 p. m. and after all hope had been abandoned, the America was sighted.

Manning and his men reached the vessel at 7:45 p. m. and threw a line from the lifeboat. By this time the Florida was almost entirely submerged on the starboard side.

After 15 members of the crew had slid down the rope to the lifeboat, the rope broke, necessitating the installing of a new rope for the remaining men on board.

Officers' List
Captain Quisque Pavalero and Engineer Pasquale Maccio were the last to leave the sinking ship.

The gale increased in velocity and Manning had to battle to keep the lifeboat from overturning. Exactly one hour after leaving the stricken ship with the rescued crew, Captain Fried of the America, by brilliant maneuvering, brought his liner around and picked up the lifeboat and 41 men.

The passengers collected a purse of $10,000 for the crew of the America's lifeboat and Manning generously directed his share be divided by his crew of eight men.

Six Injured

Six of the rescued men suffered minor injuries and exposure; four were seriously ill. The crew of the lifeboat was in fine shape but exhausted.

The lifeboat was cut adrift. The crew of the Florida had not had water nor food for three days. All food on the ship was water-soaked and the water tanks were torn open by the storm. The men were in deplorable condition when rescued and hoisted to the America by breeches buoy.

cross examination that Keyes had not returned a $5000 automobile to Getzoff until after the grand jury had indicted him for asserted bribery.

Jacob Berman, indicted but freed to turn state's evidence, previously testified that as a Julian defendant he paid Getzoff $40,000 to give Keyes. Ed Rosenberg paid $125,000, Berman declared.

DR. BULGIN IN ADDRESS ON BLINDNESS

Dr. E. J. Bulgin and his evangelistic party, who are holding evangelistic meetings here for the next two weeks were greeted by another full house last night. Charlie Clarke, baritone soloist, rendered a beautiful solo and Roy Gentry, pianist and children's worker, played a beautiful solo on the piano, the two sang a Negro spiritual.

Dr. Bulgin preached on the subject "Blind Bartimaeus" and used as his Text, Mark 10:47, "Jesus of Nazareth, Thou Son of David, Have Mercy on Me." And he casting away his garments, rose and came to Jesus.

Dr. Bulgin said, "There is not anything in all history whether sacred or profane literature that is more chivalrous and grand than the life of the Son of God as it was manifested in the opening of the blind man's eyes. I have read the story of Bartimaeus and I lay down certain truths from it: "When God Almighty opens the eyes of a blind man and he can see somebody else can see that he can see, and if somebody else cannot see that he can see he cannot see."

"When God opened the eyes of Bartimaeus, he could see, and if Bartimaeus could see, other folks could see that he could see and if other folks could not see that he could see I am afraid that he could not see."

"If every man in the Church of Almighty God who claims to have Spiritual light could make the world see what they see, we could save the world in six months. But the trouble is that we have a lot of folks in the church who say that they can see, but nobody else can see that they see. 'Oh, God, that the church members were such that others could see that they see and then we would not have to mark them so that people could know they were church members.'"

"Bartimaeus made a Bible cry—a proper theological Bible cry 'Jesus of Nazareth, Son of David, have mercy on me.' Where did he get that from? The Bible. No wonder that Jesus stopped. He had to stop and any shiner that will make that cry tonight Jesus will stop and hear. Notice the next point, Bartimaeus cried for mercy. He didn't cry for justice, he cried for mercy. That's the trouble today. Men will stick their thumbs in their vest holes and brag about what they have done."

"O black darkness, that is what is the matter. Confess your sins, get square with God and there will never be any trouble. The minute you get sin out, you are right. Bartimaeus cried yonder, 'Jesus of Nazareth, Son of David, have mercy on me,' and stopped that cry and that cry will save you."

Tomorrow Dr. Bulgin will speak on the subject, "The Man of Galilee, or, Was Jesus Divine?" This is reported to be one of Dr. Bulgin's strongest lectures.
